Minister’s Message from Revd Debs

October is one of my favourite months and Harvest Thanksgiving is one of my favourite times in church. In Flegg Parish Churches Harvest has been marked in some of our churches in September and in others it will be celebrated in October. What a privilege to be able to gather to give thanks for the harvest, pray for our farmers and celebrate God’s love not just in our churches but also in our local schools. As Christians we see God’s goodness and hand of blessing in harvest: “[God] has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy.” Acts 14 verse 17.

It is a special time for us in our Rural Churches as we offer God thanks for all that we have been given and to pray for our farmers and all who work in the agricultural sector locally. As village communities we benefit in many different ways from their hard work and dedication. One young person, from a farming family, I met in a school recently said: If you’re a farmer, every part of you must love it every minute of every day and you have to be flexible and generous in your love and expectations.

I have been reflecting on the wisdom and insight of this. I anticipate that the same could be said for healthcare workers, teachers, parents and carers and others on whom we rely and depend both as individuals and as a society.

I have reflected that this statement also describes the love of God for us as seen in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. We are always held within the generous love of God at all times and in all places. God never takes a holiday or a rest day from loving us. It reminded me of these verses from Psalm 121: The Lord will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber. He who keeps [his people] will neither slumber nor sleep.
